of families we serve find housing

Since June of 2014 we have housed over 100 families equaling 500 individuals with the majority being very young children. In comparison to Lincoln County's population families with disabilities, LGBTQ+ and people of color are disproportionately experiencing or at risk of homelessness. Most families are already employed when coming into our program. Over 80% of our families are able to graduate into housing.

of Lincoln County

"Building community, strengthening families"

(541) 614-0964

Family Promise of Lincoln County (FPLC) is a nonprofit organization established in 2014. FPLC serves families in Lincoln County facing homelessness by providing various resources including one-on-one case management and life skills classes (open to the public).

We are community-driven and rely on volunteers and donations. Join us in our goal of keeping families in crisis together and children off the streets.

 5030 SE HWY 101,
Lincoln City, OR, 97367

Our Mission

To alleviate child homelessness by mobilizing the community to provide shelter, meals, and more as families work to obtain housing.
